

Great Neck Community School's Japanese Boy and Girl Day

Great Neck Community School parent Tomoko Hayakawa and daughter Moeh display and help the students in PMX Class learn about Japanese Boy and Girl Day. Mrs. Hayakawa brought the celebration to the school.

Barbara Breslow, director of Community School, reads Kamishibai, a Japanese fairytale, to the students in English while Mrs. Hayakawa reads the tale in Japanese.

Mrs. Breslow, in a Japanese kimono, shows the children some "props" from the Kamishibai tale.
